

KUMARESAN GANABATHI, MD

UROLOGIST

Kumaresan Ganabathi, MD, is a valued member and current president of the PH Brookville medical staff. He also serves as a member of the PH Brookville Board of Directors. He specializes in urology and sees patients and performs surgeries at Penn Highlands Brookville.

As a member of the Penn Highlands Healthcare urology team, Dr. Ganabathi provides comprehensive adult and pediatric urology services. He is highly trained in treating disorders of the male and female urinary tract and the male reproductive system. Dr. Ganabathi offers a wide range of cutting edge treatment options – both surgical and nonsurgical – in a comfortable, compassionate environment.

Dr. Ganabathi earned a medical degree from Madurai Medical College, Madurai, India, and the Royal College of Surgeons, Edinburgh, United Kingdom. He completed an internship and residency in General Surgery at Rajaji (Erskine) Hospital in Madurai, India. He also received a diploma in Urology at the Institute of Urology, University of London, United Kingdom.

He completed a fellowship in urodynamics, female urology and urinary prosthetics at Kaiser Foundation Hospital, Los Angeles, California. He is a member of the Pennsylvania Medical Society, American Urological Association and Society for Urodynamics and Female Urology. He is also a member of the International Continence Society, National Association for Continence and the Simon Foundation for Continence.

He is accepting new patients at his office in the Charles Medical Center at 240 Allegheny Boulevard, Brookville.

Appointments may be made by calling his office at 814-849-8858. Most major insurances are accepted.

PENN HIGHLANDS UROLOGY

A Service of Penn Highlands DuBois

Charles Medical Center

240 Allegheny Boulevard, Suite J

Brookville, PA

814-849-8858

Accepting major insurances.

www.phhealthcare.org

