

BRENT A. BARNES, DO

INTERVENTIONAL CARDIOLOGY

Brent A. Barnes, DO, is an interventional cardiologist with DuBois Regional Cardiology Associates (DRCA). DRCA is a private-practice cardiology group that sees patients at offices located in DuBois, St. Marys and State College.

Barnes earned his medical degree from the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He received honors as the recipient of the William F. Daiber, DO Memorial Award for the member of the graduating class who excelled in the field of cardiology.

Barnes completed an internal medicine residency at the Crozer-Keystone Health System in Upland, Pennsylvania. He also completed a general cardiology fellowship at the Deborah Heart and Lung Center in Browns Mills, New Jersey, and an interventional cardiology fellowship at UPMC Presbyterian Hospital in Pittsburgh, PA. He is board certified in Internal Medicine, Cardiology and Interventional Cardiology by the American Osteopathic Board of Internal Medicine.

Barnes is a member of the American College of Cardiology, American Society of Nuclear Cardiology, American Society of Echocardiography, American Osteopathic Association and the American College of Osteopathic Internists.

DuBois Regional Cardiology Associates provides regional heart patients with a great combination of technologically-advanced services and compassionate care. Working as part of the team in The Heart Center of Penn Highlands DuBois, DRCA physicians provide complete heart care from monitoring chronic conditions to diagnosing cardiac issues to advanced interventional treatments.

DRCA cardiologists perform thousands of diagnostic and interventional cardiac catheterization procedures in The Heart Center's state-of-the-art cath labs each year. Along with the physicians, patients also see certified nurse practitioners Allison Miller, Daniel Murphy, Brittany Veltri, Michael Kennelly, and Michelle Jacobson who specialize in cardiology.

Dr. Barnes is accepting new patients. Please call his office at 814-375-3722 to make an appointment.
